Straight Talk

Mr. Lane you can call me anything you want but you liberal hacks don't bother me in the least. This is what people given to sin against God do because they can't defend their sinful actions so name calling is their trump card but we true conservatives stand on the word of God and as the saying "sticks and stones" goes so do we stand firm against you and the sin you are attempting to propagate on American society and especially our very young. Homosexuality is a sin against God and he said in his word homosexuals are going to burn in the lake of fire that burns forever but prior to this happening he turns those given to this deviant sexual lifestyle over to a reprobate mind. Keep in mind this is not me judging you but God himself. Romans 1:27-28 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. 1 Corinthians 6:9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind. Notice the word effeminate! I implore you to repent of this sin turn to God for deliverance. And please don't buy into this I was born this way, God doesn't create people this way just so he can send them to hell. Hell wasn't created for humans but for Satan and his false prophet. Only people that are children of Satan will join him in the lake of fire. 2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

I hope everyone learns a very important lesson from this and that is when you hire homosexuals and allow them to obtain positions of authority this is what you can expect. This thing "oh well they are good people" or "I know several really good people that are homosexual" still doesn't nullify what we are seeing and what we can further expect from people that are given to sexual lifestyle God condemns and their judgment while still in a natural state is to be given over to a reprobate mind as God calls it. He also refers to homosexuality as an abomination.

For you Christians notice Daniel gives you insight about the anti-Christ and a sign of where we are on God's time clock of the end time. The anti-Christ is a homosexual or at the very least a bi-sexual because of his affection or lack thereof of women. Daniel 11:37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

Have any of you people been stoning your daughters to death because they are not virgins? Take a look inside the labels of your clothes, are they made from two fabrics, look out across the lands and see if a field has two crops... do you eat from it, do you truly live by the rules of Leviticus and the Romans? If not judge not least you be judged, and while your out there throwing out stones be sure and cast some at all the other sinners!! You are a Christian of convenience, a coward that hides behind the Bible and has little conscience of choice made on the current world today, while we are casting out people from the offices I think we need to start first with all that are on their second marriages. I have noticed when we hire right wing Christian Republicans that they want to impose their beliefs above all others... our forefathers wanted any thing but that.

"As Mankind becomes more liberal, they will be more apt to allow that all those who conduct themselves as worthy members of the community are equally entitled to the protections of civil government. I hope ever to see America among the foremost nations of justice and liberality." - George Washington

Mr. Lane you are absolutely correct in all your statements. Pure love for God requires us to hate what He hates. The brother of the Lord Jesus said, "...whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God." (James 4:4 -- re...ad the whole verse; the Apostle James is addressing Christians!) And there is a "clever" statement that multitudes of Christians continually make (I just heard it today on "Christian" television), and even unlearned preachers (I'm not judging other pasors, however I myself am an Ordained Minister for over four decades...I personally know preachers who believe this unbiblical statement, perhaps because it sounds so good on the surface) that usually goes like this, "Hate the sin, but love the sinner." The Bible does not teach this!!! Yes, we are to "Love our enemies" (Mt. 5:44), however this is not the same as "loving the sinner as a sinner, and then somehow, hating their sin...as if their sin is somehow separated from them. Look at what the Bible teaches about the same God who "so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son" (J. 3:16) that SAME GOD IS RECORDED IN Psalm 7:11 as being angry with those sinners themselves: "God judgeth the righteous, and God is ANGRY with the wicked EVERY DAY!" (King James Version!!) And just check any Concordance and you will discover the multitude of things that God hates...because He Himself is pure love. And we are encouraged also to hate the things that God hates...Prov. 8:13, "The fear of the Lord is to hate evil..." Thank you Berean for your courage to post the truth about our glorious God whose hatred for sin and also for the sinner who rebels against Him to actually take that sinners place as their Substitute on the Cross, because His pure love cannot even look upon evil (Habakkuk 1:13).

David and Terry, not knowing the Scripture you do err. ~ Mt 22:29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.~

Do you think these Sadducees could not quote reams of Scripture? Yet they did not understand what they did know and that is the problem here.

There were two different sets of Doctrines that came to us through Europe. The one set severely persecuted the other set but the persecuted did not fight the persecuting with the carnal weapons of war and the Lord preserved them. There are many martyrs in this group that gave their life for the truth. The doctrine of these heretics under gird our laws and Constitution.

As the Apostle Paul writes, the law was the school master that brought us to Christ. Much of that law concerning mingled seed, cloth and work animals was for the purpose of teaching that we cannot mix the world with the spirit. It does not teach us to hate but to love.

To do that requires discipline and the lack of discipline wars against the best interest of all. What Paul wrote to the Romans was that because the people rejected His discipline he turned them loose to suffer at their own hand, which they have.

There is no peace, joy or happiness found in this crowd.

~ Jas 4:1 ¶ From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.~

Look - here's the deal - if the FED was caught flying the Nazi flag, the two groups you'd hear the most from are the Jews, and the gays. Hitler killed massive numbers from both of these groups, and others...guess you could say he too was into inclusion and diversity. The point is that this brazen act of stupidity is nothing short of crazy. We see here how otherwise sensible people (some would say the FED can't be included in that group..but for sake of discussion) can run off acting like a bunch of morons. What purpose does flying the gay symbol serve? Bottom line...pull the flag down. If the FED want's to support the gays, then let each individual within the company do so on their private time. The simple answer to those inside the FED who pushed for this is "We don't endorse ANY group publicly."

Well Terry, almost all the "laws" about food consumption were changed or done away with by Christ. Which is why Christians don't have to follow the Jewish ban against things like shell fish.

As far as stoning our daughters, stoning was also done away with by Christ. But what wasn't done away with was recognition of right and wrong. Those daughters, and sons, should be ashamed to not be virgins on their wedding nights. Gays should be be ashamed of their lifestyle choice. Neither party should be stoned or met with violence, but they should both be made to feel shame for their bad choices. And not as some kind of punishment to them, but rather as a warning to others.

The fact that you mention our daughters not being virgins is a sign of the bigger problem. We as a society are sexual deviants, promiscuous youth, cheating on your spouse, swingers, gays, etc are all smaller parts of the whole. We are a sexually corrupt society and as such are sinners. The problem isn't the few people who stand up to protest gays, the problem is the masses who don't stand up to protest all of this behavior.

And as a minority, the majority is supposed to kneel and bow down to what the minority wants? I don't think our Founding Fathers wanted that, either. You are correct about "protections of civil government". But not special treatment. Would a flag of the Cross be flying underneath the American Flag at the same building? I think not, and i think that the GLTB community would be OUTRAGED if it was.

The GLTB community always claims to be singled out, and persecuted for what they are. But they can persecute me, a Christian, with the media's blessing, without recompense, and they are lauded for it.

Would you like me to cover the merits of each and every Old Testament law, Mr. Lake? I believe there were 316...

With all due respect to Mr. Lamon, we can be far more specific, than to complain of a generalized sin against God.

Conservapedia's anthropological studies do an excellent job of solving the nature vs. nurture debate, and Westboro Baptist (though they should learn when to shake the dust from their feet) debunks much revisionist history.

In my understanding of the translations, forbidden practices were mainly pagan, religious rites.

But, the pattern of behavior comes with well-documented baggage, which noone else has placed upon them.

Here's a start: Anti-missionaries will not bare an objective, utilitarian discussion, before resulting to emotionality and shoutdowns. Do they fit an identifiable, behavioral profile?

Homo sexual people have the same basic rights as everyone else. They just don't have the right to force us to accept their sin. You all act like you are so put out because the majority of people don't accept you. Just like the topic of gay marriage. Marriage has always been between a man and a woman. Any gay marriage no matter even if the ceremony is performed by the Pope himself will never be legitimate. God is the one who invented marriage and he would never sanction a marriage with two guys. You gays think you are winning the hearts of people, but I guarantee you that even the ones that say they accept your life style are probably lying. It would be a like if a person was covered with human feces 24 hours a day and had no way or hope of washing it off would meet people that would say, "well you know, I really don't even smell anything. That doesn't bother me and people who say they are offended by the smell, well they are just mean people and don't understand".

You gay people can never overcome this.

Brian! GREAT POINTS!!! Thank You!!! And, I'll tell you the Truth, here - as well!

About 10 years ago now - I lived in Salt Lake City, Utah. Every year I would go to the Raddison Hotel near the airport to celebrate moving to Utah, okay?

The first evening was fine. Then - a deluge of homosexual men came in to the hotel together - kinda like a shriner group. They were ALL there because they'd gotten 'inside information' that SLC was going to be hosting the 2002 Winter Olympics - and they were buying up all the property in Park City - to make a HUGE PROFIT the following year.

In front of GOD - when the 50 or so of them walked into the hotel - the temperature of the place went down at LEAST 15 degrees!!! IT WAS IMMEDIATELY FREEZING - and having been familiar with the demonic - I packed up my bags and left the Raddison 1 day earlier than planned.

Yeah - I prayed for those rotten characters - BUT, know that I prayed for them AFTER 6 of them got into the elevator with me - and the one closest to me came within 2 inches of my face and laid his hands directly on my breasts to 'see' what I'd do.

I did NOTHING with the exception of speaking directly into his face and saying: "I'M NOT AFRAID OF YOU. I WILL PRAY FOR YOU."

He and the others got off at their floor and I left for my home.

THAT is what these perverted men do - they cheat (they are allowed to cheat by the 'system') and they love to freak others out. Lets all Stand Our Ground and TELL THE TRUTH IN LOVE.

Bless you mightily, Brian.

Cynthia Lauren

Hey terry the fruitbar. How nice that you have an androgynous name. It fits. Let's look at the pragmatic side: Being a homo shortens your life an average of 20 years per CDC. A huge majority of AIDS cases are among homos, along with a huge majority of Syphilis, and Gonorrhoea cases even though you're only about 2% of the population. Domestic abuse is rampant among you butt-stuffers and even more so among the dykes. Homos molest children at a rate 10 times that of heteros. (<http://www.traditionalvalues.org/urban/>) Homos account for an inordinate number of serial killers. Homos also have the opportunity of getting the underlying anxiety treated that causes them to CHOOSE to be homos treated, (www.narth.org) then joining the ranks of normal, non-psychotic, non-sociopathic society. (www.pfox.org) yet rather than YOU getting your lives back on track, you DEMAND that we "celebrate" and "tolerate" your pathological psychosis.

And you wonder why the rest of us are disgusted with you? Either get psychological help to get rid of your compulsive (and repulsive) behaviors or go back in the closet and shut the hell up. We're sick to death of listening to your BS.

Maybe the flying of that flag is really a sign from the Fed that the anti-Christ is among us. Taken a step further, maybe the Fed is saying that all of their machinations are controlled by the anti-Christ. There's more to this than just touchy-feely stuff (not to be punny). Just a thought, but have you ever asked yourself why the left is so pro-homosexual? Better yet, I think it's obvious that they will side with anything that lets them avoid repenting of their sins. As for some of the Bible passages you mentioned, Romans 1 makes it clear that they were turned over to a reprobate mind because, inter alia, they refused to acknowledge God and God's power and authority over them and, instead, worshipped false gods, animals, creeping things, etc. Ergo, when homosexuals say that God made them that way, I tell them He did because of their refusal to bow a knee to Him . . . turned them over to the lusts of their hearts. Sad . . . just so sad.

One very noticeable attribute of Sodomite / Lesbian champions, like Terry Lake, is that they combine a lack of communicative ability with an equal lack of historical knowledge when making citations to underscore their pro homosexual views. It is simply amazing.

A fundamental reason why your writing is gibberish, Terry, is that Homosexuality , in all its manifestations , is a profound evil that has been condemned by God from the beginning of recorded time, and this condemnation has been echoed by every great statesman ever since. It is impossible for you to dredge up any support for this evil. Your George Washington quote, for example, uses the word "liberal" in your homosexual context, not in Washington's context, since our First President used the word to depict the Freedom Loving, Fiscal and Moral Constitutionally Conservative Patriots who founded this country and, believe me, was not envisioning the advance of the sodomite / lesbian cause.

Kind Regards,

Terry using heterosexuals sins will never justify homosexuality. You can do or say whatever you want but it changes nothing.

It is true straights as you call them doing as you suggest is sinful but at least what they do doesn't go against nature and this doesn't justify their sins either. It is just a statement of fact.

Jesus loves ALL people! It's the SIN that He doesn't like, but that's why He came as a God-man to die in mankind's place if we accept Him and turn to Him. We are to be loving towards mankind and show God's grace and mercy. Accept the "people" -but we don't have to accept their sin. But remember- We ALL have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, -this is why we need to turn our lives over to Him and His WILL-not our will.

I take it, Terry, you are a member of the "rainbow coalition" and would like nothing more to obtain more power so as to impose the lifestyle you crave onto others. Sorry, but it does not work that way. I really don't care if some people in this world wish to practice same gender relationships, that's your business. But the problem is that homosexuals have been trying to force the general public into their lifestyle--and we do not wish to participate, let alone be forced to watch the silly psuedo-couples copulating in public streets. For you to claim that everyone who believes in God are cowards of convenience, let me remind you that there are many who died along the way just so you could continue your lifestyle and your right to speak out. You eat the food from the same fields, wear the clothing of the same fabric you speak of, see the same visions of fields...etc. So, what makes you and your same gender lovers special? Get off the back of the heterosexual citizens, quit trying to force yourselves onto people who are not interested in your lifestyle, and quit acting as if the world owes you a living--I owe you nothing and if you want my respect you will have to earn it.

This specious, and fallacious argument used by the Left concerning what the Old Testament says and means concerning homosexuality and eating shell fish, and the prohibition of wearing certain clothing, just shows the depths of deception and ignorance of Scripture ... But then, the homosexual Left, and their supporters will distort and use anything that would further their goal. They hate the Bible, but if they can use it to further their agenda ... then the "ends justifies the means," as their patron saint Saul Alinsky has said.

Doing just a little research on the differences between the moral laws and ceremonial laws of the OT would clarify the difference.

It would be great if people would do a little more research on that tried old argument they use from Leviticus about shell fish, and such.

In the New Testament the distinctions between ceremonial laws and moral laws were increased. Though most ceremonial and dietary laws were discontinued, the moral laws were not lessened after the Redemption of the New Testament.

So, while the dietary laws were rescinded, the moral laws were increased.. saying that the Mosaic law has ended is not to say that God has no laws or moral codes for mankind. Even though the ceremonial law has passed, the moral law remains. The New Testament speaks of the "law of the Spirit" (Rom. 8:2) and the "law of Christ" (Gal. 6:2). One cannot say that something that was sin under the Law is not sin under grace. Ceremonial laws concerning diet or wearing mixed fabrics no longer apply, but moral laws (especially those rooted in God's creation order for human sexuality) continue. Moreover, these prohibitions against homosexuality can also be found in the New Testament. When you find prohibitions in both the Old and New Testament, then you can be assured it's not something that should be engaged in.

Is it your place to make the judgement otherwise? God did give us free will after all. And if you think about it, when you force someone to believe you're taking away what God has given. Be careful who you claim will spend an eternity in hell fire, cause it might be you. I'm sure forcing people with threat of violence is right on top of God's "you get into heaven without question" list. Maybe you need to take a closer look at what Jesus taught, because it sure wasn't persecution and oppression of those different than himself.

Taking the bible Al A Carte as usual. Why not read the whole bible? In the same book that talks about how gays are an abomination, also states that you should not eat shellfish of any kind. Also, it states in the bible that women should never have power over a man, this means we need to kill Sarah Palin and many other women in government offices as well as killing all women who hold management positions in the work place.

Also, if my brother works this next Sunday, am I obligated to kill him myself or is it ok to call the police? Also, when I was the NFL, is it ok for them to play football so long as they wear gloves? Now that I think about it. My sister speaks English and French fluently, is a great cook and always cleans the table when it's her turn, so tell me, what would a good price for her be if I was to sell her into slavery?

Also, if your kids talk back to you, be sure to have them brought before the town and have the whole town stone her till dead.

Since we're talking biblical morals here. Christians are evil, the Bible is evil. If you say anything different, then you obviously haven't read the bible.

The United States is currently a theocracy with Christianity as it's main religion. In my religion it's considered holy for a man to marry a man or woman to marry a woman. Therefore, if any of you Christians want to talk about oppressed religions, you guys should really stop looking in the mirror, you won't find it there.

Actually Clinton was the first President to claim June as Gay Pride month even though it has been an established celebration of Gay Pride long before that. Advocates of gay pride have used history to point to oppression as well as differing levels of acceptance of homosexuality throughout history. The ancient Greeks did not conceive of sexual orientation as a social identifier, as Western societies have done for the past century. Greek society did not distinguish sexual desire or behavior by the gender of the participants, but by the extent to which such desire or behavior conformed to social norms. These norms were based on gender, age and social status. "Lesbian" derives from the name of the island of Lesbos, which was famous for the poetess Sappho, who wrote love poetry to female lovers. Homosexuality in the ancient Roman Empire is considered to have been widespread but was tempered by the complex social systems of the society.

During Medieval times all forms of sexuality began to be repressed by the church as the message of heaven and hell gained popularity. As technology fell behind, simple luxuries such as clean running water and proper sewage became a thing of the past. This caused horrible conditions and disease. People began to believe that they were suffering from the wrath of God, blaming immorality. Any and all forms of homosexuality became not only shameful but punishable by death. In 390, the first law banning same-sex love was enacted in Rome, making it punishable by death. And then so oddly we were plunged into the DARK AGES and a great loss of all modernism occurred with the loss of running water and technologies and etc and this lasted for a thousand years.... and then along came the discovery of AMERICA

The Federal Reserve is going for another round of Quantitative Easing. So now they take their rainbow flag and stick it in every ones eye.

What most people don't understand is that with out the 16th and 17th Amendments of the US Constitution there would be no Federal Reserve!

Please everyone study how we as a nation was governed before 1913 and how we've been governed ever since.

Our only solution that protects our Christian Liberties and Economic Freedom is the total repeal of the 16th and 17th.

Since when do people with a behaviour problem consider themselves something special. When do a minute portion of society decide they have a right to dictate to the majority. The Gay society thinks they have their foot in the door of this country with their "poor me"victimized outcry. All I see is a bunch of perverts that won't or can't get along with the oposite sex to allow this country to school little kids into a life of a pedofile's dream. The next thing we as a country will have to face is the criminals will want their own flag. If you think some other country thinks along your perverted ways go there....

You have noticed that both of those great societies, Greek and Roman, are no longer "great". They imploded under their own degradation. America is headed there as well. Sodom and Gomorrah would have been save if there had been even 10 righteous. I think, no, I know, that because of praying Christians we are spared. I do not hate homosexuals. I am not phobic. There are few families that are not touched in some way by this. There is a better way. God loves everyone just as they are but He loves them too much to leave them that way. I have my faults and I ask God to help me and I work towards changing what I am. If I had a sexual addiction of any sort then maybe the best thing would be to just abstain. If I were a widow, I could do that. Nuns and Priests do that. It is not impossible. Of all the homosexuals I know, none are willing to sacrifice that and truly seek God's perfect plan. The physical man is more important than the soul. The need and desire is immediate. Salvation and eternity seem abstract and not an immediate need. But, no man knows the day or hour his soul will be required. Is what we are doing worth an eternity if we are wrong? If you feel God made you that way, then God is a liar and His Word is false. He would not condemn what a person TRULY can't change. It is changable if you are willing to do the work and make the sacrifice. God doesn't just change lives He changes our way of thinking.

Richard, what an extremely weird statement from someone that has had no gay friends, I have no problem getting along with women what so ever! I have many many hetero friends that are both men and women and some lesbian friends and some gay friends, and some christian friends and some pagan and some atheist. I have no behavior problems and I do not consider myself anything all that special. I have never been a victim of anything more than the typical abuse other then what people like you dole out, but I am extra tough with a family that will protect me with tremendous means. But those that come from Christian families and get outcast into a vulnerable situation often do become victims of more then just verbal bullies like you. They are beat to death, along with many other torturous treatments. But trying to educate a bigot is difficult. Hetero sexuals are far more likely to be a pedophile then a homo, simple fact. Christian churches have been tremendous sponsors of male on male pedophiles for countless centuries. But you never acknowledge any of that because it is not convenient for your hate agenda against gays.

Many are well aware of ancient history and the role that homosexuality played in their era. However, during that same era, heterosexuality was also honored--which is something contemporary homosexuals fail to do, let alone admit to. Furthermore, the ancients were interested in defining justice, understanding human nature, advancing good health, and many other issues that continue to face us today--at no time was homosexuality the primary concern of our ancient ancestors. So please spare us of your minute scale-down of ancient history because homosexuality was the least of their concerns.

Better homophobia than homophilia, that's what I always say. Homophilia/homosexuality is not a human right, it is a human wrong, it is a grave sin, it is immoral, it is pure evil.

Homophilia/homosexuality/sodomy is no more a right than pedophilia or terrorism. If its ok to discriminate against pedophiles and terrorists, then it is ok to discriminate against sodomites!

lol ... a "human wrong?" ... a "grave sin?" ... "pure evil?" So many charges, so little intelligent thought. Exactly what evidence, logic and reasoning do you have to support such silly claims? A book of fairy tales, talking animals and scientific ignorance, written by bronze age sheep herders? Please explain in what way, a man loving another man amorously is immoral? How does it affect the autonomy of others, and how does it negatively affect you and your well being? The very idea that you are okay with irrational discrimination against others whose actions hurt no one, is very telling. Of course, what more would I expect from someone whose god condoned slavery, promoted racial genocide, commanded the kidnap and rape of young girls, demanded the murder of disobedient children, ordered the slaughter of innocent babies, and other such sadistically immoral acts. Let's see your point is how inclusive your side and basically how evil mean and nasty Christians are right? You really should check your attitude at the door. The Catholic church molestation issue was after all homosexual priests infiltrating the church with the express purpose of destroying the church. There is nothing in the world more evil than abortion not only does your side condone it they celebrate it. The church has done more good in it's history than any other institution ever. For all the claptrap from the left about diversity fact is homosexuals have contributed very little to Western civilization and in reality seem intent on destroying it. Anyone whose entire social, political and economic outlook is based on their sexual identity is mentally ill. By the looks of it that constitutes the vast majority of homosexuals.

@David - Your entire comment is rife with ignorance. You start with an unsubstantiated conspiracy theory. Then you issue statements completely ignorant of facts, as in that about abortion being "celebrated," the alleged "good" church history surpassing all other institutions, and the contribution of gay people to western civilization. And in regard to your last two statements? Here's a different perspective: "Anyone whose entire social, political and economic outlook is based on their religious/spiritual identity, is mentally ill. By the looks of it, that constitutes the vast majority of Christians." Hmmm ... that sounds better.

No where in the Bible does it condone slavery. It does tell the slave to do what is right even in the slave state. Could you give scripture and verse of the other accusations. Slaughter of babies?? Maybe you are referring to the two women that brought the baby to Solomon? God did not order that. Maybe Abraham and Isaac? He had an alternate plan and was testing Abraham's obedience. He already knew the outcome. Maybe the death of Jesus? His son. That is what makes Christianity different than all other religions. In no other religion was the leader/founder willing to die FOR our salvation. They can make all kinds of rules and stipulations and even require OUR sacrifice but not of themselves. Even Bin Laden required that of his followers but he was hiding and holed up to save his own life. Jason, life is very short, just a whisper in the eternity. Are you sure you are right? Are you willing to lose everything for what we have now, here on this earth? Is this the best you can expect? I can promise you it is not worth the risk. You and I are not promised tomorrow. I know where I will be if I die and I am not afraid. Can you say the same? I guess you don't believe in a heaven? The God you mock created it. He also created the Hell. We will not just rot. Your soul will live forever. Forever. 80-90 years is nothing. When you read the Bible, ask God to help you see it with open eyes. It will become very precious and comforting. Not a book of condemnation. When you read the parts you must be referring to, read the context surrounding it. God is love but He is just. He is not a Santa Claus type of God and His wisdom is beyond our finite thinking. But, He will judge us. I will die and go to hell if I do not ask forgiveness and make a change in my life. All sin is the same. There are no degrees of sin. You can't do enough good to earn salvation because it's not by works, it is free. It does require a sacrifice on our part. What does God expect from us? The part we aren't willing to give. What is most precious to you? Your need for sex with men? Would you be willing to lay it on the altar like Abraham did with Isaac? If not, it will be the thing that determines your eternity. Same for a drug addict, thief, gossip, liar, fornicator. Or, whatever is our "god". Make sure it is worth it. Nothing I am or have is worth my salvation. Because I am willing to give it ALL to HIM, He has blessed me beyond my expectations. I do not mistake blessings for acceptance of my sin, though. I can have it all and lose everything. I am ever mindful of my relationship with my saviour, Jesus Christ. .

@Donnas - All you're doing is making completely unsubstantiated assertions. No other religion had a leader/god/savior willing to die for "our" salvation? Wrong. Dozens and dozens of other (often much older) religions share that theme. You know where you'll be when you die? No, you don't. You *believe* where you'll be when you die, but you don't *know.* Knowing is predicated upon evidence, of which there is none for your assertion. God created heaven? Where's your evidence for that? And under what tests and conditions have you completely ruled out natural causes, or the "miraculous creation" by other gods? And what and where is heaven, and what evidence do you have to support your claim? God created hell? Again, evidence please. And do you know that the bible says *nothing* of an eternal hell for unbelievers ... only a "lake of fire" that consumes (permanently annihilates) anything tossed within it? We will not just rot? Our "souls" will live forever? Those are pretty big claims. What evidence do you have that "souls" exist? What are they made of, how are they measured and quantified? What evidence do you have that they "live forever?" You see Donnas, I have scores of evidence that we do in fact just rot when we die. And please don't insult me with bible reading "help." I am a former christian of nearly 30 years, a former minister who spoke in tongues, taught biblical hermeneutics, eschatology and who street preached. I would bet my life that I know the bible better than anyone on this forum. Oh, and I don't have a desire for sex with men. Personally, I find the thought of me having sex with a man to be revolting - not because of some irrational hatred and sin theory, but because I'm heterosexual. And no, I would NEVER do what Abraham did. It was a vile, sadistic, immoral thing for Abraham to even consider murdering his son for some voice in his head. If I had been Abraham, I would have told god NO! and given him a lesson in morality. Finding Abraham's willingness to murder his son as a righteous action, is psychologically sick. Now, given that I've written a rather verbose response to you, allow me to ask: Would you like me to post the scripture references for all of my previous accusations against the bible/god? Say the word, and I'll post them shortly.

Ahhh Jason the good little leftist, ignore facts and arrive at weak talking points. It is not arguable that the Catholic church scandals are a HOMOSEXUAL scandal as well a matter of pedophilia. Your side of the aisle tends to try and hang the issue on the church but homosexuality is at the root of the churches problems. As in time the military will be as well. Once openly gay troops destroy the militarys morale and force structure you will have yet ANOTHER instance of homosexuals undermining a great American institution. Bradley Manning another boil on society is a openly gay soldier who basically has ignited a world wide Islamic revolution by exposing our top secret cables for the world to see. I stand by my assertion that the vast majority of militant gays are mentally ill. The fact that they are not content to live quietly but seek to push their perverse lifestyle on others is simply another symptom of their sickness. You can make all the empty claims of church/ Christian lunacy if you like but it is not the Church seeking to undermine every foundation that made America great.

@David: And what are your qualifications to diagnose a person or group as mentally ill? No one is "pushing" their lifestyle on you. That's a victim mentality - a position of weakness. You just want those you don't agree with to keep quiet and hide in the shadows. Kind of how people wanted to keep black people "in their place" 100 years ago. How sweet. If a christian has the right to express their faith publicly, then gays or atheists have a right to express their beliefs publicly. This isn't a theocratic dictatorship, and it never will be. And as far as empty claims? Ha! I wish they were empty. Unfortunately, they are substantiated by scores of bloodsoaked evidence covering christendom's guilty hands.

@Jason When people use the Bible against Believers it is in ignorance. Quoting laws in the Old Testament created by men to control the masses...they were never sanctioned by God. You must differentiate between God's laws and commands and the ones made by man. The Bible reports these things doesn't mean it's condoning it. God never condoned slavery what a crock!! Just like our history books in school that included slavery and it's history doesn't mean the history book was condoning it's use. No the Bible isn't a book of fairy tales. It has been proven through archeology, science and research that the things reported in it are true. In fact the Bible speaks of the earth being round not flat. So much for scientific ignorance. The other things regarding the claims of prophets and the moral teachings sanctioned by God, yes man must take by faith. And yet people are willing to believe in little green men from Mars or aliens in space ships, extra terrestrials in other solar systems. But the things in the Bible are fairy tales? I guess it all depends on a person's perspective. If you want respect, then give it to those who may disagree with you. Unfortunately tolerance is a one way street.

@MattandJill: God not only condoned slavery, he gave rules for slaves and even rules on how to properly beat slaves. Funny how a "morally perfect" god, couldn't just say, "Hey guys, no slavery. It's not good." No, instead he gave them rules for properly beating slaves. Your god condoned slavery. Learn your bible. And no, the bible has NOT "been proven" through archeology or science, and to suggest so is an egregious display of ignorance. Some little things have shown to be accurate, but as in all historical fiction, one must include *some* verifiable facts in order to sell the story. Dan Brown mastered the art in his book series. And please don't give me that garbage about how the OT was not sanctioned by god. The commands in the old testament are attributed directly to god, and Jesus himself fully upheld the old testament commands. If you're going to start hacking out verses to protect your dogma, why stop there? Hack out Jesus and the apostles too. Hack out that acid trip called Revelation. Seriously, the OT vs NT false dichotomy is an intellectual cop out and theological dishonesty. It's never worked before and it doesn't work now.

Wrote Roberts, "So many charges, so little intelligent thought."

I understood that an intelligent thinker will compare a claim against itself.

Have professedly atheist govts done no such atrocities, in the name of atheism?

Yet, your version of the unitary executive goes unquestioned. Why is that?

Rousas John Rushdoony writes that "the god of a culture can be located by fixing its source of law. If the source of law is the ontological Trinity of Christian revelation, then that Trinity is the God of that culture. If the source of law rests in the people, then the voice of the people is the voice of God (vox populi, vox dei), and that voice finds expression and incarnation either in a leader, a legislative body, or a supreme court, depending on which gains the ascendancy. The highest point in the processes of law is the god of that system." (1978, The Politics of Guilt and Pity)

For making claims in terms of unfathomable absolutes, don't you have a form of religious faith, Mr. Roberts?

And, for putting moral authority in the hands of man, don't you worship a sort of god?

For you, autonomy on the individual level was really besides the point, wasn't it? You didn't like for us to do and say as we please, and you would prevent it, if you had the power.

"The very idea that you are okay with irrational discrimination against others whose actions hurt no one, is very telling."

Jason, the very idea that you believe homosexuality hurts no one is even more telling and filled with wishful thinking or blind ignorance. You knock someone for living as the Bible tells people to live and yet many countries have been built on it's foundation, including the USA, even though govt demands children be taught otherwise.

I will not have my govt, you or anyone else tell me what I can believe or see as immoral. Gay pride parades are immoral in society's eyes. The nudity, the sexual overtones, etc, do not belong in the public street. The gay bashing, which used to mean beating up gays many years ago, now means gays bashing those who don't agree with them. Way to go on trying to win people over!

It's really funny that you mention a man loving a man. The gay people I know prefer to keep their relationship private and are monogamous. And yet the ones making all the noise are the immoral ones, with multiple partners, picking up young kids to try and "turn" them. Not my words, the words from a gay activist rally who thought it was funny.

You don't see straight people out flaunting their sexual lifestyle, so what makes you think it's alright to flaunt yours? Do what you want behind closed doors like most people and leave it there. You will find more support that way. They say the squeaky wheel gets the grease. But we've already given as much grease as we are going to give in the 70s, 80s and 90s. We are out of grease for you squeaky wheels and prefer to just get a new wheel.

It's not up to us Christians to judge you, that's God's job. If you want to talk about judging people and make accusations that supposedly come from the Bible, then I suggest you learn what our Book says and means before you start throwing out irrational and inaccurate statements. You people just love acting like you know our religion, our God and the word of God. If you had an ounce of understanding the Christian religion, you would know that the Old Testament is our history book and the New Testament is our faith. The Christian Bible is filled with stories about love and hate, peace and war, heterosexual and homosexual and even incest. You can't possibly give reference to a more popular or quote from a book read more than other. It's the best book on the planet, proven by the fact that 6,000,000,000 copies sold, it is by far the most popular book on the planet. That's 1 billion MORE than the book in 2nd place! Read it, you might learn something if you aren't afraid of the outcome!

@Mike: Um, I guess you didn't read my post up above. Why don't you mosey on up there and read it. I'd bet my life I have read and studied the bible more than you ever will. It's obvious I know it better than you, as you seem ignorant to the things I listed actually being in the bible when they are. Shame, shame christian. You should know your bible better than that. I also addressed the false dichotomy of OT vs NT that you're trying to pass off as legitimate. A little less posting comments and a little more bible study and scholarship would do you well and help you avoid using such logical fallacies. Just because you don't like the fact that your god commanded genocide, infanticide, sexual slavery, murder of innocents and condoned slavery, among other sadistic atrocities, doesn't mean it isn't in there. Your god is condemned by his own book. And that's the book you use to justify your hatred and bigotry toward gay people. They're speaking up against a tide of theocratic ideology. Don't you think you'd speak up if you were being marginalized and discriminated against for being a christian?

@Mike Autin. Are you for real?! "You don't see straight people out flaunting their sexual lifestyle"....are kidding me? Everywhere you look you see straight people flaunting sex! Ads that sell beer and cars by using barely clothed big boobed women! Celebrations of Marcia

Grad all over the country! Movies and tv shows with men and women having sex. Ads that constantly rub on tv and pop up unwanted on my computer about how men can make their penis larger, harder for longer, and get it up with pills after nature has tried to tell you it's over! Do I need to keep going?!?!?!? Open your eyes, man!!!!

I don't know a single black (or white, or Asian) who chose their race. I come from a place of oppression: I was born Left Handed. Everyday 90% minimum of the world is working at cross purposes to me. Will the Fed fly my Lefty flag to celebrate my cause and bring awareness to my plight? NO. Will we have a Lefty-pride parade to show the other 90% that "We're Here, we're lefty, we're smarter than you, and more successful, get used to it!" Sadly I don't see that happening. WHICH IS OK because I'm happy NOT being the 90%. Why can't gays just be happy being themselves and leave the huge population that doesn't see things their way alone?

Always remember: Tolerance DOES NOT equal acceptance. The US has forgotten this truth for decades, giving rise to PC.

Also, I've never read the Bible or any religious text. I view religion as the presence of faith (which means Atheism IS a religion, as their organization is predicated on their FAITH in their BELIEF there is no God).

Now that all this religion and oppression BS is out of the way, which only took.....5 pages.....can we discuss the issue of the federal reserve promoting a personal lifestyle above others using my tax dollars, because that is the issue here.

Jason Plain Talk

Pure and simple sticking another man's vessel in your mouth and sticking one man's vessel into another man's rectum is not only immoral but you people spread AIDS more than any other in society which threatens all of us. You cost taxpayers millions of dollars to give you treatment, this is immoral. When you sodomize our young and send literature in the public school system encouraging our young to try it you might like and getting them to dress in feminine apparel in the public school system is immoral.
A Little Lesson About the Sin of Homosexuality and How God Fells About It

In Sodom it was old and young

Gen 19:4_ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter. Notice that it was old and young who went to the house. However, some may say the young does not refer to children. They are wrong, the word young is derived from na'ar, nah-ar, (concr.) a boy (as active), the age of infancy to adolescence. Since there were children, we must assume that heterosexual intercourse took place, to produce for themselves children out of their own greed.

The children were taught homosexuality

We see how commonplace this is among lesbians today. This is backed up in that the young male children were homosexuals in Sodom. Their mothers must have raised them this way and the lifestyle was acceptable. Is this not what we see happening in America even as I write this letter. Liberal activist judges in this country are giving homosexual men/women the right to adopt innocent children into this evil lifestyle. Peter in describing these false teachers says in 2nd Peter 2:14 having eyes full of adultery and cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls (young children); a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children. They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor who loved the wages of unrighteousness. This is why only Christians need apply for elected office in my book.

It Was Legal

Genesis 19:5- and they called unto Lot, asking him where are the men that came unto thee this night? Bring them unto us that we may know them. Know means to have sex with them. It was both young and old that wanted to have intercourse with the angels. They wanted to sodomize them in public. When they could not have them they threatened Lot with the same. Lot was a judge in the city. They said stand back and again they said, "this one fellow (Lot) came in to sojourn and now we will deal worse with you than them (angels). They pressed sore upon Lot and came near to break the door. Lot's response was to offer his daughters to save the angels, which was wrong. One can never do evil that good may come of it.

According to scripture only Lot and his family were saved out of Sodom and Gomorrah although Abraham pleaded with God to save them all. God gave Abraham the opportunity to save all that didn't participate in this ungodly sin but he could only find that it was Lot's family that hadn't participated in the homosexual lifestyle, sex with beast, and other ungodly acts.

For those that claim to be Christians, it is put up or shut up time that is if we want to give a lost and dying population reason or hope to become Christians. I am familiar with the temptation as a boomer to disassociate ourselves from controversy and stay in our comfort zones, but if you are like most of us, wishing we had done things better, now is the perfect time to earn the respect we want from our children by standing up for the righteousness of God. I can assure you, there is no better way to earn our children's respect and honor than getting out of our zone and lead by example. And too, spineless Christians will have no part in the kingdom of God. After all, this is the Christians call!

Wieneke, I could say the same about you and your low intelligence. Not to mention you are on the same level of a vile schoolyard name-caller. You all say your belief that sex is only between a man and a woman to reproduce, yet you conveniently overlook the billions of times men and women have sex just for pleasure, which if you haven't noticed, doesn't produce children. Sex for pleasure serves no purpose, which is my point in response to your comment. Sex with yourself is not for reproduction, it does not produce children...nor does oral sex, and anal sex, which many, many straight people perform quite often. If you have ever had sexual relations out of wedlock, that is immoral and all those who have will burn in the fiery lake along with gay people for their sexual immorality. That is going to be one crowded lake! Welcome to the lake to all you divorced people, too.

And I am so sick and tired of "Christians" cherry picking from the bible. If you are so worried about the family unit decaying, you should be focusing your attention on the approximately 50% divorce rate, which is destroying the children and the future of this country.

If you claim to live your life so adamantly by what that bible tells you, you should also be putting the adulterers to death, Deuteronomy 22:22, Leviticus 20:10. And it is one of the 10 commandments!! Statistics confirm that 50 to 70 percent of married men (between 38 and 53 million men) have cheated or will cheat on their wives, and that 40% of woman have or will cheat on their husbands. Great monogamous track record you all have, such hypocrisy in telling others how to live their lives! Why aren't you Christians up in arms about the horrible divorce rate and the rates of adultery amongst yourselves?

A couple more points. Based on figures that only 2% of the population is gay, the rest of all the heterosexual people spread an innumerable amount of STDs and other filthy diseases amongst themselves.

Gay women have the least amount of "filthy diseases" and the lowest amount of cases of AIDS, lower than heterosexuals.

To those who say they would like to see gay people stay with each other so "their kind" can eventually die off are horribly ignorant. Heterosexual parents produce gay children. Always have and always will. It is just a fact of life.

If you are not gay, you have no right to an opinion as to whether it is a choice or not. Only gay people can answer that question. And as much as you all want to believe gays "recruit", again, you are horribly ignorant. This is a myth, it just doesn't happen. It is a lie told over and over to vilify gay people.

@Robert Morgan: You're quite confused. Homosexuality is NOT a choice. It's 100% biological. Just as you don't know any black, asian, etc who chose their race, neither do you or I know any homosexual person that chose their sexual orientation. Calling it a choice is terribly ignorant.

Point two, atheism is not a religion, and you appear foolish calling it so. Atheism is no more a religion than not collecting stamps is a hobby. Atheism is simply a lack of belief in deities. There's no faith involved whatsoever. Atheism is simply the logical response to an assertion (existence of deities) for which no evidence exists. It is the position from reason and critical response which basically says, "Until you substantiate your assertion of deities with testable, verifiable evidence and a falsifiable hypothesis, I reject your assertion and do not believe your claims of the divine." You see, the religious/theist position requires blind faith in place of evidence, while the atheist/agnostic position requires evidence in place of blind faith. The former is irrational, while the latter is rational. One is welcome to either position, but one is not welcome to call the irrational, rational, and vice versa.

On your third point: Quite simply, the Federal Reserve is a private bank and not a government entity. They can fly any flag they wish and support any cause they see fit.

Come on Cynthia, you *had* to see the gaping hole in that ridiculous reasoning you put forth.

And your sardonic little argumentum ad hominem only reveals the weakness of your position. You have nothing substantive to say, so you resort to petty ad hominem. Typical.

Give me a reason to cry out to christ (again that is ... seeing as how I was a christian for nearly thirty years and a former minister). Give solid evidence of the existence of your god and how one can eliminate all the other gods as candidates for the "true god." Give evidence of heaven ... of hell. Show evidence of answered prayer by recording an amputee having their limb miraculously restored via prayer alone. Produce that testable, verifiable evidence and a falsifiable hypothesis and we'll talk. Back up your statements that I'm "betting my life." Otherwise you're just babbling and parroting the same old dogma and shibboleths. Empty words.

@Robert: Stop being a prick. You are not competent enough, nor qualified to diagnose a person as sick, having a genetic defect, or having a "damaged childhood." You're just using petty argumentum ad hominem because you have no ground to stand on in your argument. That's weak.

And Robert, sex isn't only for procreation. Humans, along with dozens and dozens of other species are known to have sex purely for pleasure. And hundreds of species have homosexual sex. It's natural whether you like it or not. It's 100% biological with scientific evidence to prove it. You're standing in a house of straw.

@David: And finally to Mr. Lamon (boy you guys were busy while I was gone). To begin, I don't know what your aversion is to proper terms such as fellatio and anal intercourse, but to me they're a bit more mature than the sophomoric euphemisms you seem to enjoy. Secondly, in case you missed it, I'm not gay, so when you use phrases such as "you people" you're missing your audience.

But let's address your first point. Homosexuals (Lamon translation: "those people") spread AIDS. I'm going to give you some credit and assume you realize that's a ridiculous straw man argument. Nice try though. Heterosexual people spread AIDS too ... or did you think straight people were immune? Hey, guess what? Christians kill people in car accidents! They shouldn't have equal driving rights! Do yourself a favor and put a match to that straw man ... it'll save you some embarrassment. What spreads AIDS is indiscriminate promiscuity, regardless of whether it's Homo or Hetero. And Hetero promiscuity is far more prevalent.

Now I really don't give a rip about "what god says" about homosexuality. A book of myths and fairy tales written by Bronze Age sheep herders is a far cry from where we should find insight about treatment of homosexuals. If you want to talk about "biblical morality" and "what god thinks" about various topics, let's look at how he condoned slavery, commanded ethnic genocide, murdered millions of people, ordered the slaughter of babies, commanded the kidnapping and forcing into sexual slavery of young girls, accepted human sacrifice, among many other sadistic, immoral acts. There's your "biblical morality." Hardly a source I'd want to rely on for morals.

Oh, and if you want to give people a reason to "become christian," you should start with providing some testable, verifiable evidence of your god's existence, legitimate substantiation of scripture and its alleged divine origin, and a god hypothesis that is falsifiable. Playing on people's fears (hellfire, etc) and emotions (heaven, reward, etc.) is a huckster's bill of sale. It's preying upon the weak, and not a genuine "reason" to believe.

@David: lol, that's pretty funny. You're calling me ignorant, yet you have a demonstrable ignorance of the bible. Everything I said god did is in scripture. If you are so ignorant of your own holy book that you are unaware of this, you sir have some studying to do. Stay tuned for references ...

@Robert: Same to you. It's not Islam kid ... it's your god in your bible. Your ignorance of your own holy book is startling.

Now, I don't have quite as much time to waste as you folks, so I need to be getting back to real life. So, I'm going to give you folks a little bible lesson and I'll give you the scripture references for every claim I made. Then, just to be thorough, I'm going to provide you with proof that homosexuality is natural and 100% biological - 0% choice. And then I'll leave you to do all the back patting and give each other all the reach arounds you want when I'm gone.

God condones slavery: Exodus 21 gives rules for proper slave keeping with verse 20-21 actually giving a guide for acceptable slave beating.

God commands ethnic genocide: Honestly, this doesn't require detailed references. Just look to any culture, such as the Amalekites, which god commanded Israel to utterly destroy. God sanctioned ethnic genocide.

God commands infanticide: Not only could we reference the murder of all of Egypt's firstborns, many of which were mere infants, but god directly commanded that babies be murdered - example: I Sam 15:3

God ordered the kidnapping and forced sexual slavery of innocent young girls: Numbers 31:17-18, 32-39

God commanded murder of disobedient children: Deut 21:18-21

I could go on and on. And anyone uses that copout "that was old testament" ... remember, god said he does not change. He is the same forever, so these vile, sadistic characteristics revealed in the OT are still a part of your god and you worship a wicked sadist.

Now, on to the homosexuality proof.

Homosexuality is 100% biological, thus completely natural. Studies have been done which found that when olfactory senses were presented with urine from pregnant women, containing high amounts of pheromones that trigger primary sexual response (i.e., hypothalamus response) the results were that the primary sexual responses (or lack of) were the same for heterosexual women and homosexual men, and the same for homosexual women and heterosexual men. In similar studies involving primary sexual responses from olfactory sense of pheromones in sweat, the primary sexual response (hypothalamic activation) to a testosterone derivative pheromone produced the same result in heterosexual women as in homosexual men.

Now, you see, primary sexual responses cannot be faked. They are biological reactions that are natural and automatic (autonomic). These studies reveal that homosexuality is as natural as hunger pangs - 100% biological, and not even the slightest bit by choice. So have at it. I met the burden of proof. Homosexuality is a natural biological phenomena, and the evidence and facts prove it. Have anything else to say?

Oh, and because I'm sure someone will say I'm making it up, I made your plate of crow easier to eat by providing you a couple of the aforementioned studies below.

Jason: " in what way, a man loving another man amorously is immoral? How does it affect the autonomy of others, and how does it negatively affect you and your well being?" For you, it is not amoral, for many others, it is. It DOES affect the autonomy of others when those who practice homosexuality make every attempt to force those beliefs onto others. I have watched many homosexuals commit lewd acts in the view of the general public; heterosexual couples would have been put in the slammer for the same thing. What you do behind closed doors is your business, but when you throw your sexual acts at the public audience, it becomes our business. People have every right to have their say when such acts are offensively conveyed. Furthermore, if the homosexuals wish to consider themselves a couple, fine; there are laws that allow you to designate who you wish to share personal information with--just fill in the form and sign it. There is no need to make other demands just because you happen to be a homosexual.

You err in your thinking when you state homosexuals are not trying to push their way of life (or belief) onto others, because that is exactly what the so-called rainbow coalition is doing. And by the way, do you promote pedophilia? Would you consider this to be an amoral act?

Perhaps your employer would be interested in the bigoted and hateful things you're posting on a public forum?

I can agree with you that, to me as a heterosexual, anal intercourse is disgusting. The idea of putting my male member in an anus is repulsive. But to those whose natural, biological sexual orientation is homosexual, it is as desirable as heterosexual sex is to heterosexuals, and you have no right to tell them they can't do that. You call it wrong. Based on what? What gives you the right to judge a personal act between consenting adults as right or wrong? Evil? You're just being redundant. A grave sin? Fallacious accusation as sin is a religious construct meant to control behavior. Reprehensible? And just how should they be reprehended for actions committed between consenting adults? true equality would also involve the gay community completely accepting and encouraging the straight and/or family-oriented community.EQUALITY CANNOT ONLY GO ONE WAY.

Take the French example: France has civil-unions for homosexuals. 70% of said unions are granted TO STRAIGHT COUPLES who want the benefits of marriage without the legal entanglements. And I support that idea: for true equality, you'd have to grant the same civil-unions to gays and straights alike....otherwise you just have another institution of discrimination. No one group is "more equal" than another, and the entire forced-equality paradigm we've been pushing is mainly why. Legislated equality ALWAYS results in forced inequality

Elizabeth, that may be partly true, but just look at how the government props up programs to promote abortions, promiscuity, alternative lifestyles (and I'm not only talking about homosexual lifestyles), etc. They don't try to prop up the "traditional family", now do they? Why don't they have programs to help people learn how to BE a family? Huh? Do you ever see that? Do you see programs to help teenagers learn to be responsible with their choices in having sex?? They give out condoms and tell them to have sex responsibly by using condoms. Do they promote abstinence? I'd wager not that often. Just think about it.

Well now, Obama has made another declaration. This anti-American person who occupies the White House does not embrace nor reflect American values at any level. So, who is this guy? He certainly does not speak for the American people. After he and his administration are removed from office in 2012, he should reside in a country that practices his ideology where all his and his father's dreams can come true.

Homophobia is the last bastion of bigots. They are on the losing side of history, and they are lashing out because they feel threatened that their place of privilege within our hetero sexist society is in danger. I agree with everything you said about the federal Reserve except the part on gay Americans. The Federal Reserve is not part of the government. They are supporting their many gay employees. This is not about you. This is a Republic-not a Democracy. We have a Constitution and individual rights. It's not all about "majority rule" in the USA.

The Bible is actually much more descriptive than we're giving it credit for.

Technically, the crime of Sodom was going after strange (heteros) flesh, that of a different order -- the angels, which came to warn Lot.

But, the story is still especially condemning, since the homosexual citizens were typecast as aggressive rapists.

O.K. John I see you are holding unto a cat. I have a cat story for you! One day my young son came up to me and told me there was a kitten on our front door step and it was crying. He wanted me to let it inside the house. Finally I agreed and he let it in. Well, this kitten was no kitten. It was a full grown cat. But it was injured. Its jaw was hanging. I did not have much money at the time and I was facing foreclosure. All I could think of is how was I going to pay to get this cat fixed. So, since I believe in God and I know he helps me, my son and I immediately held hands and prayed over the cat. I took the cat to the animal hospital to have surgery. The vet met with me and my son when we were there to pick up the cat early that evening. They close at 6:00 p.m. Anyways, he brings the cat out. I will never forget it. It was so beautiful. They had bathed it and is was a pure white cat. He explained to me that its jaw had been broken and probably for at least three weeks because it had started to heal itself. Then he went on to say that he had something else to tell me. I said whats that? He told me that the cat had died during surgery. I was like what? He then went on to say Sheila I'm telling you your cat died today! It died! We have never seen anything like this before, ever. The cat was dead. I then asked him how long it was dead. He said long enough to turn blue and completely cold. He said this was a story to tell. See, the hospital was joining me in being a good samaritan to this cat because they knew it was a stray and they agreed to do the surgery real cheap. I believe in God and remember my son and I had originally prayed over the cat. God did have purpose for that cat, though. Besides, teaching me and the hospital that we are to care for the helpless animals. My daughter had been lying to me about what she was doing in the house while I would be at work. To make a long story short the cat had scratched the carpeting in her bedroom so I had decided to change it to a wood floor. When I went to move her dresser I pulled out a drawer. Under the drawer were all kinds of emails she had printed up and saved from a boyfriend that confirmed my suspicions that she was not being honest with me. At the time she was living with her father in another state. Two weeks later her father and her came and took her bedroom furniture. Had that cat not scratched that carpeting I would have never known the truth. I had been praying for the truth of the situation! No, God is not believe! He is real and when you ask him for help he intervenes with his power. Everything done in darkness is seen by God. He lets us get away with it for a little while then he lets us get caught. If we would of listened to him telling us not to tell a lie in the first place then we would not of gotten ourselves into a great big mess than have to face the consequences for wrong doing. You can call Hillcrest Animal Hospital in Rockford, Illinois to confirm my story. I do not know if the vet at the time still works there. He probably does. This happened back in 2006.

Oh, and I forgot to add that a week after I brought the cat home it had developed diarrhea from the antibiotic I was suppose to give it. So, I called the hospital to ask them if they could change the prescription. The girl that answered the phone was having a hard time finding the chart. I told her the white stray cat with the broken jaw that had surgery. She then asked me where was the cat now? I thought that was a strange question to ask but I answered her anyways and said the cat is at home and I am at work. She then responded by asking, "You mean the cat is alive? I said, Oh, yes! The cat came back to life! I told her my son and I had prayed over the cat. She then went on to tell me that she had seen the cat herself and it was dead.

I don't know what is worse, the abortion of the English language laid out within that letter, from supposedly an elected official. Or the fact he believes that his "6,000" years of western belief" is superior so everyone should be forced to abide by it.

I know this might come as a surprise: But The Entire Population of the United States - well wait, the world, is not, and does not subscribe to your brand of religious foolishness.

From the content of this letter, it sounds like this gentleman from Virginia has an unnatural obsession with that people do, with the free choice as laid out in the Constitution of the United States of America. That every one has the right to, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Or, did I by chance miss the part about how it only applies to people who are heterosexual.

The fact that WND, and it's readers, would best be served somewhere other than a country where people are treated equally, then they would not have to feign outrage because a majority of people in the country do not agree with their whacked out views.

First. Calling People Idiots when responding does not strengthen your case, it makes people think you lack the ability to have an argument.

Second: Homosexuality is not as a result of a single parent and no father figure, this is quite possibly the most ill founded argument i have ever seen, if this was true, there would be a surge in gay children because In 2009, there were 19.6 million U.S. children residing in female-headed families.

Third: You are wrong on the Crusades, while the Roman Catholic church did attack Muslims, they also knew no bounds when it came to attacking in the name of their religion (Roman Catholic) including the Greek orthodox church, and the first crusade was against the Jews in Europe.

Studies have proven that there are genetic precursors in regards to one's sexuality. But I am sure you sir are able to use your superior intellect to find this research and understand it.

Gotta love the spastic theology of Terry trying to equate Old Testament Jews to New Testament Gentiles, who were never commanded to try to be Jews under the Mosaic laws specifically given the Jews. "Judge not lest you be judged" is only half the sentence, and it wasn't referring not judging at all because Jesus also told His followers to "judge with righteous judgment" [John 7:24]. Jesus was addressing "what measure you use will be used against you"...it was about condemning people without mercy & grace, about ultimately leaving forgiveness & chance to change out of the picture. Homosexuality is never "pardoned" as not sinful, but with any sin here and now, God offers a chance to repent, a time of grace before His judgment falls. Us Christians should never condemn without giving mercy & grace it's due because God wishes none should perish but all repent...and at the same time give no place to evil in society because we are called to be salt & light.

Take for instance, when I marched with my cross for staight marriage..and they descended the steps of city hall to attack me. Why..even the Chief of Police was afraid to really back me up. I prayed for justice. Well eventually, because this Chief did not protect me...the homosexual crowd turned on him in another matter..he lied...and had to leave or possibly be prosecuted. Prayer does work..when we take the cause to God. We do need to takeour 3 minutes at each city council and Human Rights movement. "I believe that the tendency to classify all persons who oppose [this type of] marriage as 'prejudice' is in itself a prejudice".

allowing this type of marriage "necessarily involves [the] degradation of conventional marriage" an institution that "deserves admiration rather than execration".

"when people (like this) marry they cannot possibly have any progeny and such a fact sufficiently justifies those laws which forbid their marriages".

such unions are "not only unnatural, but... always productive of deplorable results... They are productive of evil, and evil only, without any corresponding good... (in accordance with) the God of nature."

Laws banning this type of marriage are necessary to prevent "traditional marriage from being contaminated by the recognition of relationships that are physically and mentally inferior".

All arguments made in to justify laws banning interracial marriage between 1823 and 1964. Eerily similar to what's being said today to deny homosexuals the institution of marriage.

How does today's society look back at the people who held these views back then?

LoLZ, the concept of marriage was not invented by Christians or Jews and did not originate with biblical culture. Sure the religious rites that we associate with marriage are biblical but the idea of two people committing themselves to one another in a monogamous, long term relationship both predates the bible and existed in cultures that were not exposed to biblical teachings for centuries.

All of that is beside the point. I am talking about the civil institution of marriage, marriage in regards to the legal rights and protections that are associated with it. I could care less whether any individual church, chapel or cathedral is willing to perform the ceremony. If the State is going to recognize marriage as a legal contract and that contract is going to impart rights onto couples then any two consenting adults who want to enter into that contract need to be able to do so.

Terry, you're a first class idiot. It's people like you who want to be protected in your open, "in your face", sexual deviance. What you really don't like is any religion that has a moral standard that disagrees with your own self-created moral standards, or lack thereof. While you scream tolerance and acceptance, you constantly bellow that Christianity is unacceptable, at least the kind that doesn't embrace your lifestyle and beliefs. So, instead of tolerate my Christian beliefs that happen to be different from your personal beliefs, you demand that my religion change and that I accept your behavior and lifestyle choices.

Do you see a double standard here? I sure you. The guy who demands tolerance is actually the guy that is most intolerant. Terry if you want to act gay and be gay, then please do it on your own time, with your own money, with your own sexually deviant friends, in your own home. Quit demanding tax money, legal protection for public displays of filth, and educational reforms that target grade-school aged children with your sexual lifestyle choice propaganda. Let me raise my kids the way I see fit, while you and your gay partner become the last of your generation....hard to pro-create a new generation when you've got it all wrong isn't it?? I guess that's why you target other peoples kids.

And please remember, that once you get the gay lifestyle pushed into acceptance, that there's another guy waiting in the wings to push for sex with children, and then another guy out there that will want to have public sex acts with animals legalized and protected. Where will it end Terry?? Is it anything goes?? Where do you draw the line in the sand?? With kids? Animals? Where Terry? Oh yeah, that's right, you can't reply because then you would be guilty of having a moral standard and someone might find it intolerable....

@ Bryan- there is a very clear line drawn at consent. A child cannot consent, an animal cannot consent, an adult can.

Nobody is saying that Christians or Christianity is "unacceptable" what people are saying is that there is a population of Christians who are intolerant. I happily accept your interpretation of your faith and it's doctrine. I will fight for your right to believe any and everything you want to believe, if you believe that homosexuality is a sin, is morally reprehensible, is unnatural, or whatever else go right on ahead believing that as it in no way, shape or form impacts me or my LGBT friends and family.

On the other hand, laws that make homosexuality a crime or prohibit two adults from entering into a contractual relationship that allows them to legally share property and protects the rights of one partner should the other fall ill or die does have a direct impact on the lives and livelihoods of people.

The whole idea of a gay "agenda" being "shoved down the throats" of people is laughable (also a hilarious choice of sexually charged imagery). Gay people aren't trying to get any special treatment, they simply want access to the same rights and institutions that you and I do. The way you interpret your religion tells you that it's wrong. I get that. But the law of the land is not your Bible.

@Bryan: Let's not make claims we can't back up now. You claim homosexuality is "sexual deviance." Exactly what evidence and reasoning do you have to say that a biologically natural phenomena is deviant? Homosexuality is natural and normal, and occurs in hundreds of species besides humans. Do you also find certain natural biological attributes, such as skin color, to be deviant as well? And I'll bet Terry's morals are far more moral than your religious "morals." After all, you follow a god who condoned slavery, slaughtered millions of people, commanded the kidnapping and sexual slavery of young girls, ordered the murder of disobedient children, commanded racial genocide, ordered the slaughter of babies, and other numerous sadistic and immoral actions according to the bible. Gee I wonder who has the higher moral ground here? The one who follows and worships a wicked sadist, or a gay person who merely wants to have equal rights and be treated equally amongst his countrymen? No one is demanding that your religion change. You're demanding that others validate your religion by conforming to its irrational dogmas, and they merely want equal rights and freedom FROM your oppressive religion. And your panicky, hyperbolic "where do we draw the line?" argument is a strawman. As mentioned above, 'consent' is the key word. Your whole argument is just silly, unsubstantiated ranting.

@ Jason The Bible never condones slavery. It does lay out how to properly treat slaves, the important thing to note here is that slavery at that time wasn't like the slavery of colonial America. Slavery at that time wasn't based on race, skin color, etc. It was based on debt. A lot of slaves sold themselves into slavery to pay off debts they couldn't pay, including even doctors and other skilled laborers. Others were forced into slavery when they failed or refused to pay their debts. In fact those "slaves" were much more like the people today who get their checks garnished for outstanding debt than they were to the slaves you're thinking of.

The Lord never commanded the kidnapping or rape of young girls. You're most likely talking about Judges 21:10-24, which tells the story of what a group of people did. God never told them to do it, the Bible never says he condoned it, it simply tells the story of what they did. There are lots of stories recanted in the Bible that are not condoned acts by God, but merely recounts of what happened.

As far as the "murder of disobedient children" As I've said before, this was old testament and no longer applies post Jesus. In other words it doesn't apply to Christians. Just like "An eye for an eye" was replaced by "turn the other cheek" Jesus did away with stoning with the ""He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone.." It simply doesn't apply to Christians at all. Even to the Jews it did/does apply too, it was meant only as a last resort to deal with truly evil acts.

God has ordered the deaths of many, including children. There have been times were he has declared whole groups of people evil and beyond redemption, including their children. All of the inhabitants of Sodom and Gomorrah were wiped out including the babies. (With the exception of Lots family) I can understand that it seems unfair that God would punish child for the sins of their parents, but he does and has ever since the first sin in the Garden of Eden. But then he also changed all that when he sent his own son, Jesus, to die for our sins and make it possible for all of us to enter heaven regardless. All we have to do is truly repent and accept Christ as our savior.

Terry, that is restricted to the Catholic church due to the result of their establishing the non-Biblical rule of Priests having to be celibate. Don't show us your ignorance by covering all churches with that statement.

Mr. Lake, it was the homosexuals who have all but destroyed the Catholic church with their hiding behind the cloth doing their evil deeds. And it's also a known fact that homosexuals took over the American Psychological Association and deem their lifestyle normal and acceptable. It's all nothing more than a loud-mouthed ruse and one people of this Christian nation are getting pretty tired of hearing.

@ Eber- Well, there is the right to marry the person of their choice which means they do not have the right to; joint parenting, joint adoption, joint foster care, next-of-kin status with regards to hospital visitation, joint insurance policies, immigration and residency for partners from abroad, joint leases, inheritance of jointly owned property, benefits such as; annuities, pension plans, social security and medicare, spousal exemptions on property taxes upon death, joint filing of customs claims during international travel, wrongful death benefits, bereavement/sick leave, decision making power during end of life or burial planning, crime victims recovery benefits, loss of consortium tort benefits, domestic violence protection orders, judicial protections and evidentiary immunity...

Should I continue?

It takes one to know one you first class idiot. It amazes me that Christians result to such name calling. Well not really, after all the church is becoming nothing more than hate the minorities these days. I tolerate your Christian beliefs as I have heard them scream from the pulpits across the air waves about how immoral I am, and that I should be stoned to death or whatever, and you think that is tolerance. There are churches all over the country so I cannot understand what it is that you think I do, I have one partner, I do not find anything sexually intriguing about children at all. However I find it amazing that you would think that gay men are pedophiles, you see I like men not little boys or little girls, grown adult men...period. And I think that it is very wrong that any adult male or female preys on an innocent child for sex. And some how it is amazing that you think we demand tax money, MMM gay people are single, because we cannot marry, we usually do not have kids, so we do not qualify for tax breaks generally of any sort and we pay thru the teeth for your children to go to school. And you know what, I am happy to do that. But I just do not want you to be allowed to use my tax dollars to teach your children to hate me. That is what your church is obviously for, and you are free to do that there. I do not want you to take more money from me than others and then treat me like a second class citizen. I do not know anyone that has sex with animals, but I am sure that you are right on top of that and hunting them down. And if you think I do not have any moral standards I guarantee you mine are on a plane that yours will never be able to rise up to. My GOD is a loving GOD, but yours seems to be filled with hate and deception. I was taught to love not to hate, I was taught to tolerate not to discriminate, I was taught how to be generous and giving and caring for all not just those exactly like me. But just go ahead and stick your head in that old testament and live by it all you want but meanwhile I will be living my life.

@Mike Gays do have the right to marry the person of their choice, to the same extent I do. They can marry whoever they want as long as they aren't relatives, underage, not mentally competent, or the same sex, etc ... the exact same rights I have.

Most of the other things you mention aren't actually rights, for example Social Security. That's not a right. Not everyone qualifies even if they are straight and paid into their whole life.

Also a lot of the things you mention like... joint leases, inheritance of jointly owned property, decision making power during end of life or burial planning, etc can be achieved via signing other legal documents rather than a marriage certificate.

And basically everything you mention... they do have equal opportunity too, whether the items are rights or not. As long as they are married to a qualifying spouse, they have those same options. And they have the EXACT SAME OPTIONS on who they can marry as I do.

@ Eber, no they don't. Where as you have the chance to marry an individual that you are in love with and want to commit to spending the rest of your life with homosexuals do not. The "they can do the exact same thing that I can do" argument is bull. It's a false choice.

As you say many (but not nearly all) of the things on that list can be achieved via other contracts, why not simplify things and give LGBT folks access to the one contract that secures them all?

I'm not going to sugar-coat it. I don't know about what you know. But the gay agenda is obviously to "convert" straight men and women and children. Which means that guess what? They are lying (which doesn't surprise me considering the immense immorality they have) THEY DID MAKE A CHOICE TO BECOME HOMOSEXUALS. THEY WERE NOT BORN THIS WAY. THEIR PROPOGANDA TOOLS ARE LIES. BUT THEIR EFFORTS TO CHANGE US STRAIGHT FOLKS INTO SEXUALLY IMMORAL PERVERTS i.e. GAYS. ISN'T EVER GOING TO WORK. AND saying that anyone... ANYONE who opposes homosexuality is a bigot and full of hatred. Is a straight up propaganda tool and you're nothing but a puppet for the gay leading authority. You want to know how I know that? Every post on this thread all posted by different people, defending homosexual behavior and immorality... IS EXACTLY THE SAME. YELLING "HATE HATE HATE!" like an annoying blaring repetitive siren! WHEN IT ISN'T TRUE. WHEN ALL WE WANT, AS FAR AS TRUE AND REAL CHRISTIANS ARE CONCERNED, IS TO DETER YOU confessing HOMOSEXUALS FROM GOING TO HELL. TO LOVE YOU AND NOT JUDGE YOU. YOU MUST TRULY BE OF A REPROBATE MIND IF YOU BELIEVE THAT ACCUSING US THAT MORALLY OPPOSE HOMOSEXUALITY, OF HATE WILL SOMEHOW DETER US OF KEEPING OUR CHILDREN SAFE FROM BEING INFLUENCED BY THE HOMOSEXUAL AND DEVIANT BEHAVIOR OF THOSE WHO propagate the homosexual agenda. AND JUST TRY TO STOP US FROM PROTECTING THE INTEGRITY OF AMERICAN VALUES AND FAMILY

VALUES, FROM gays who only seek to destroy the family model, and stop the natural pair of man and woman, to change it to the unnatural man and man or woman and woman! AND WHEN YOUR MORALS ARE AS TWISTED AND SICK THAT YOU CONFUSE GOOD WITH EVIL. THERE IS A PROBLEM! A SERIOUS PROBLEM! YA'LL ARE SICK IN THE HEAD. AND IF ANYONE GETS MAD I COULDN'T CARE LESS! BECAUSE I TOLD THE TRUTH! OH AND THERE'S A WAY OUT OF THE HOMOSEXUAL BONDAGE HELD BY THE DEVIL. Accept Jesus and then Accept God. HE WILL GET RID OF ANY SIN YOU ARE HELD IN BY. YOU WILL BE FREE! YOU WILL BE FORGIVEN IF YOU ASK THE LORD JESUS FOR FORGIVENESS. TEMPTATION WILL ARISE EVENTUALLY AND ITS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO NEVER GO BACK OR LOOK BACK. OH AND GUESS WHAT PROPAGANDA PUPPETS? YOU JUST ALLOWED ME A CHANCE TO STAND TO GLORIFY MY LORD JESUS. FREE PUBLICITY FOR GOD. I DIDN'T HAVE TO BUY AN ADVERTISEMENT SPOT ON THIS ARTICLE. SO THANKS. My lifestyle does not destroy families, has nothing to do with families, I have done more to keep young married couples together than you could imagine, I have helped as many young people raising children as I possibly could in my life, I am uncle/great uncle to over 50 now, I have helped countless ones in my family and countless ones otherwise, so far we have no gay ones other than me and one of my first cousins is a lesbian, Some of the next generation might be but they are too young to tell or be concerned with it yet, it is your christian hatreds that have ruined the Church by picking out one sin and preaching and teaching and yelling it from the pulpits that have driven the current generation away from the church which is truly sad, you will argue for days about gays rather than spend time teaching the kids how to love one another. The church has become a festering ground of hate and bigotry and wants to blame the entire worlds problems on a few percent of the population. Gays are not the cause of the the decline of the traditional family in this country, it lay entirely on the church itself. But hate if you must. I am sure it helps you to feel superior to us immoral gays. I am sure you are righteous and perfect and flawless, I am sure you are as near to a god as a man can get.

Unbelievable, simple insanity at all levels of government from the President on down. Who are these people, why do they continue to receive SPECIAL TREATMENT? What does sexual orientation have to do with banking, a holiday or a certain month of the year. We have to end this crap. Where and when is it going to end. Why don't we have a special month for heterosexuals. I'm sick and tired of our nation/cultural making an issue over these damn homosexuals who choose to be gay and demand to be treated special or unique. Damn it, they are hardly 2-3 percent of the population. Enough is enough. Be gay, just stop putting/forcing it in my face ever day you have a chance to. If you don't have anything more important to do with your life than to make an issue out of your stupidity to be gay then perhaps you're really not any where as important or meaningful as you assume and claim.

Aside from the fact that this article really delves in to the Reserve, rather than staying on topic of the improper demonstration of the rainbow flag, I wonder why all of the alternative lifestyle populace feel the express need to demonstrate what their sexual orientation is. I can not remember anyone flying a flag demonstrating "Hetero" behavior. If you prefer the gay lifestyle, you have exercised your free will to do so. Please do not wave it in my face, I do not care to see it. You are not entitled to special provisions in the law because of your choices, and most certainly you do not have the right to force your agenda on me or mine unless we seek it out. It does not surprise me that a cartel of six U.S. Banks that conspired to debauch the currency of the United States will openly promote the debauchery of Sodomites and Lesbians.

Those who champion such lifestyles should look to Sparta. From that City-State's promotion of the ideal homosexual army and the practice of abandoning unwanted female newborns in the City Square to its disappearance was less than three generations. By the way, Sparta was a democracy. Majority rule chose to pursue that lifestyle.

I don't hate Lesbians and Sodomites. Many have become so because they were traumatized by abandonment and predators, and I grieve for them. My Christian faith commands me to love them. But because I love them I refuse to condone their behavior. Just as I refuse to condone murder, theft, heterosexual fornication, adultery, alcoholism and drug addiction. As a sinner myself, I do not condemn those who fall, but I still recognize falling as falling. Nevertheless, criminalizing homosexual congress is counterproductive - such criminalization just creates a powerful underground economy.

But central banking with fiat currency should be criminal. It is far less dangerous as an underground economy than as the dominant economy.

Everyone with any common sense knows that it was a BIG mistake turning over the Federal Reserve to a private group of Zionists that have their own personal agenda to control the world through usury. The flying of a flag representing the sickness of some of the people of our country should show us the Zionist mentality of divisiveness in their effort to control the world. They want us fighting each other while they control the purse strings. NOT only do JEWS condemn homosexuality, so do I and a majority of others around the world, however it is the common practice of the Zionist to stir up trouble, by putting out a lot of crap about different things that would cause diversity among the majority just so they can keep the majority from picking on them and it becomes easier for them to maintain control. I think it would be helpful to back up a bit on comments to this article.

(1) Obama proclaimed June LGBT Pride Month. If people are going to blame anybody for the flying of the flag of the LBGT community, blame Obama. Questions about the Federal Reserve and the LBGT 'pride' issue are two separate issues; they should be dealt with separately. Since this Comments thread has concentrated on the LGBT issue, I'll throw in my two cents' worth on that one, and then be on my way, although I would prefer a discussion on the other.

(2) The LGBT 'issue' is, at its core, not a moral one. It is a scientific one. A truly healthy society would long ago have looked at the growing incidences of gender anomaly in society and concentrated its responses on the level of causation, not the one of effects. ('For the want of a nail...') As it so happens, some people have done just that; and their research has uncovered the fact that the human brain is sexed at an early stage of fetal development, dependent on the hormonal bath it is subjected to. Various environmental factors can skew that bath (so can some physiological ones, like faulty adrenal glands of either the mother or the developing fetus). Estrogen mimics/endocrine disrupters, from plastics and the water supply, is one such factor. Stress is another (higher levels of homosexuality have been found to follow in the wake of wars, eg). And perhaps the most alarming such factor is the effect of drugs like barbiturates, prescribed to pregnant women without sufficient regard to their impact on the developing fetus. Regardless of specific circumstances, all of such factors are resulting in male brains being wired into genetically female bodies and vice versa and all spectrum steps in between, like trannies.

Some people can spend their energy fighting for their 'rights', on either side of the 'effects' coin. I have a greater concern for those poor souls feeling trapped in a body that they can't relate to, and resorting to such cries for help as sex-change ops, striking out in psychologically pain-filled violence, or ending the dichotomy in suicide. We really need to start dealing with this matter on that level. Time's a'wasting.

Terry W. Lake, in his lengthy condemnation of morality throws out the punishments contained in the Old Testament LAW OF MOSES. Even a small reading of the New Testament will tell him that Christians are no longer under the Law of Moses. God's Word tells us that the Holy Scriptures were written by men who were under the direction and guidance of the Holy Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit is the third person in the Godhead (no there ain't three gods). Properly, the first chapter of the Book of Romans definitely condemns any homosexual activity and it gives the reason that homosexuals are like they are. The first chapter - all of it - from verse 1 through 32 gives a complete overview of this damnable sin. So, David Lamon, having said it all quite well, I will not burden you with any more. The reason I won't burden you any more is that you would not understand and you cannot understand because understanding the truth requires spiritual discernment (understanding) and those who were born in the flesh and remain in the flesh will never have any understanding. As to why God allows certain situations that many ignorant people will question and condemn, read Romans chapter nine. God is the potter and we are the clay. Out of one lump of clay He creates some for honor and some for dishonor (9:21). We being the creation and not the Creator have no right to question the potter as to why He created some as He did. (9:19,20) I could go on and on and shoot down each of your arguments but getting back to my previous statement - you can not and will not understand because you have not been given spiritual discernment by the Holy Spirit. Enough said. I am really tired of God haters.

People... people, when are you going to stop the whining and start to mobilize against this communist regime that has hijacked this country? It is time to let the Muslim-Marxist and his mostly homosexual regime know that they have gone to far and it is time to stop or face the necessary revolution - it's either that or be content living under a tyrannical government put in place by the New World Orader. You had better start rising up or shut up and take the onslaught of evil that is guarenteed to happen with this Godless regime; as Yogi Berra had said: " it's getting late, early." If you fools haven't realized by now that this illegitimate Muslim-Marxist is out to destry this country and take your freedom from you, you will have gotten the government you deserve!

Satan hates humans because we are made in God's image. The more humans that deviate into homosexual behavior the less amount of humans there will be as homosexuals, whose behavior is contrary to what God intended for His creation, cannot reproduce.

Homosexuality thus leads to less human beings and this is why satan deludes people into thinking it is normal and something to be "proud" of, as he hates mankind.

Also, to the devil's satisfaction, homosexuality means more human company for him in hell. Those who practice this sin will descend into the pit and be in torment for eternity if they do not repent.

Satan is the Father of Lies and this is one of his favorites that he is trying to propagate. His ultimate goal us to make this sin to be accepted as "normal" so as to tempt more humans into practicing it.

Therefore, to the enemy of men's souls, this mean LESS humans on earth and MORE humans in hell!

He will be doing this in July snd will be continuing even through the electio. He will look like a hero when he ha just broken th Nation's bank. That will be all it takes to get people to forget his Muslim ties and his continued destruction of our country. Ron Paul claims to vote no on every bill that is not authorized by Article I Section 8 of the United States Constitution.

If he lives up to that claim, his vote to repeal DADT will offend those who think the Constitutional delegates should have included DADT in Article I section 8.

Since Dr. Paul, if he is consistent, probably doesn't support a standing army in a time of undeclared war, no matter what its recruitment and discharge policy is. Yes, I know he's an Air Force Veteran of undeclared war vintage. He still is the most Constitutional Congressman on the hill.

This article supports that the USA is the fulfillment of Babylon the Great, when it reveals that the USA has become a prison for every unclean and hateful bird, which includes the homosexuals as described in Rev 18:2. It is ironic that the Babylon the Great is destroyed by the Antichrist led fourth beast and the ten horns, who are the Muslim terrorists that the Left Liberal Democrats are assimilating into their anti-Christian, anti-Semitic agenda in the USA and the world. The four major umbrella terrorist groups that are working together against Jews and Christians include the Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas, Hezbollah and al-Qaeda. The Left Liberal Democrats have been assimilating the Muslim Brotherhood into their anti-Christian, anti-Semitic agenda in the USA through the "reaching out to Muslims" program, which is purposefully designed to cause the Atheists in the USA to take sides with the terrorist Muslims against the Christians and the Jews in the USA and in the world.

Rev 18:2 And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird.

Rev 17:16 "And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire.

One more thing...I I have also read that the "homosexual" agenda was designed by the elite to create a moral-less society as well as making pornography being so readily accessible... so the homosexuals have been duped as have those that subscribe to pornography because it furthers the elite's agenda by pulling families apart. I know someone that is gay (an extremely nice and generous man), but several members of his family won't speak to him. The elite, that run this country, are themselves, without morals which is why our society is in a state of chaos.

Confederate battle flag is not to be flown because it is offensive to some. Seems that the political agenda of homosexuals is to shove down their beliefs on all others, not withstanding anything.

So what is it, some flags that are offensive to others can be flown, if you are PC enough. Sounds like Animal House to me where we are all created equal except that some are more equal than others.

Since the Federal Reserve Bank is a representative of the US Government, it has absolutely NO right to fly the so-called flag of any group, amoral or otherwise. This puts one group as a favored one above all other citizens in the US and nullifies the impetus of the 'Government of the people, by the people, and for the people.' Essentially, the Federal Reserve Bank is now saying that the US Government is 'of the homosexuals, by the homosexuals, and for the homosexuals'. Take the ugly "rainbow" flag down and do it today. Furthermore, Ron Paul is quite correct in that the Federal Reserve Bank is unconstitutional and does not have the right to coin money or the right to make monetary decisions pertaining to our government.

I have commented on several blog sites and argued with homosexuals and all of them seem to defend themselves and their actions by claiming the straight people are the ones with the problem by calling them homophobic, right wing religious nuts, etc. My belief is very simple, I am not religious, but I might be crazy enough to support an attempt of total annihilation of homosexuals around the world. Also, I know homosexuals that don't bother anyone they just go about their life just like everyone else. However, just because I don't like their lifestyle and believe it is sinful does not make me "bigot" or homophobic. I don't want this taught to my children and it is simple as that! It is a matter of freedom! You have choices and so do I. Furthermore, the people on here are right when they say if everyone practiced such a lifestyle we would become self-extinct! Yes, it is true! Oh, I know we can run to the scientists and ask for artificial fertilization! Like homosexuals, I want the freedom to NOT teach my children this lifestyle! I do not beg the government for special rights in the name of "equality." If someone wants to say bad things about me and call me names....hey, go for it! It's freedom of speech and that is what makes this country great and I support them fully!

When will people understand that each of us suffer at the hands of others who may not have the same beliefs. When it is okay for only certain groups. America we do indeed have a major problem. As I heard it, Paul's answer to national debt (read Socialist entitlements), was to sell the Gold at Ft Knox. He draws comparisons to private members of the public, saying (paraphrased) that it was a 'good and moral thing to do,' and that 'an individual would have to do it.'

Actually Ron Paul offers 3 bills, 1 to audit the FED, 2, to promote currency competition with the FED and 3. to abolish the FED. I don't know what you heard, but I'm sure Dr. Paul has done the math and knows that at the most optimistic there's not enough gold @ $1500/troy ounce in Fort Knox to make a dent in the debt. As far as who owns the Gold, I think it would be preferable for individual U.S. Citizens to own it over the FED. It should really belong to the United States Treasury.

I am a very conservative constitutional scholar, who has been following WND for a few years. While David Lamon believes he speaks for all conservatives as do some of the others here, your actually quite wrong. I for one, stand up for the rights of those who are not straight. But regardless of how I feel, lets be honest, its just a flag, its not hurting anyone, its not turning people gay, and in fact its probably hardly even noticed daily.

I support Ron Paul's attempt to audit and shutdown the federal reserve, and really that's where the discussion should remain. If you people get so strung up over one flag on one pole that isn't even changing anything flying there, then how do you expect to stay together enough to challenge the real problems in our country.

Stop squabbling, and star learning to stand together. Everyone who speaks out against homosexual people, or transgendered individual etc, is forgetting that our strength comes from standing together, it comes from diversity and it comes from our hearts. Don't close your heart to those you don't understand, or you will be closing the doors to our future.

My question is, when are we going to see HETEROsexual month? If we are to rejoice and publicize sexual acts, we must be fair to all. So when is the STRAIGHT month? Or the HETEROsexual parades? Where is the flag to be flown?

If we are to allow a private sexual act be brought into a public forum, then we must include all. To publicly enforce, and rejoice, only one sexual act upon our young is discrimination. Most respecting and moral couples do not open there private lives to the young. To shove homosexual acts upon them, at every chance there is, is not acceptable.

Put your sexual acts back behind closed doors where it belongs. It seems I can protect my child from heterosexual acts on TV, the Internet, books, movies and video games, but they are inundated with HOMOSEXUAL ACTS and I can't do a thing about it.

Yet the community continues to celebrate with gala parties, hollywood stars to attract the party then play crowd...for AIDS benefits....Instead...they should compare the COTTAGING (look that one up in Wikepedia) going on in semi protected homosexual areas here like WARM SANDS area. Police held a raid, gays cried...discrimination...chief...lied..said not there for the sting (he was) Just wanted to hold on to his job.. It will be an interesting book when I finish: BOYCOTTED IN PALM SPRINGS...and it tells conservatives how to SPRING into action..Act in love, No sex education in schools, just a common No Bully sensible that all parents can agree on and no one be offended....Stay on top of this folks...Its time.....Last time I was verbally abused...I stood up for my 3 minutes at city council and told them where I would be at next gay parade...and that if I was not safe to parade my opinion...then...they are inviting the wrong folks here for a parade. The Grand Marhall, Cleve Jones..got them in shape..and at least at the next parade...we all blew kisses to each other...So...YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

This is just another reason that the Fed needs to be dissolved and done away with. Most of the people that work there are queers and lisbos.

The people in charge of providing this blog need to make it easier to reply to comments. By the time I find someone to respond I forget who they are there are so many. When we are notified someone commented we should be able to click once and go straight to their comment so we can answer them.

I want the FED to fly my hunting club flag, so maybe I will contact the NRA and get it done. If a queer group can fly its flag then my wonderful hunting club or hunting (pride group) should be offered the same space and I will demand it. Would you sponsor my flag Terry Wayne and Jason?

No Shon they can do this abomination in their closet but when they bring it out into the streets they have gone too far. Imposing your lifestyle on others is where we draw the line.

Procreation is what one man and one woman does. That's what we were put on this earth to do multiply. How many queer chickens have you ever seen, or how about deer, or cattle, monkeys, apes, fish, birds, they all mate up and have something that queers can never have together and that is offspring.

Hello TW The real truth is you so called gay people just have a mental problem, that's right gay folks are just mentally ill. That was the diagnosis of queer folks up until the books were forced to be changed by the Government in the 60's.

They can't live for God according to the bible. Their sins and lust of the flesh separates them from the love of God so there are no Christian homosexuals, period.

Who made you god to make that deduction? I am thinking god would not approve of you speaking for him.

Nobody made me God. The bible if you would take the time to study is what judges people not me. We are just messengers repeating what has already been established in the earth.
